Short description

La Vénerie is the cultural center of the Watermael-Boisfort municipality in Brussels. Created in 1972, it is acknowledged and agreed by the Wallonia-Brussels Federation under the decree on the cultural centers.

A team of 20 people ensures the animation and the running in 2 locations: the “Espace Paul Delvaux” (performing arts, cinema and photography), and the “Ecuries de la Maison Haute” (visual arts, lectures, creative workshops).

Missions and activities developed by the Cultural Center are diversified: performing arts, audiovisual, plastic arts, creative and expression workshops for all audiences and especially organization of creative workshops for undermined people; support of cultural associations of the municipality, trainings in stage techniques and organization of a street arts festival.

We also have a European project cell, which involved la Vénerie in 3 ‘FSE Equal’, 2 Culture programme projects and 1 Grundtvig programme since 2002.
