Strand/category	Cooperation project 2019 -small scale
Deadline	11 th December 2018

Cultural operator(s)

Name and country	MANK Hungarian Creative Art Public Non-Profit Ltd., Szentendre, Hungary
------------------	---

MANK Hungarian Creative Art Public Non-Profit Ltd. is one of the most multi-faceted member of the Hungarian cultural network of institutions. The Company, with its versatile activity and support system contributes to the creation, marketing, distribution and sale of high-profile art works. Its primary aim is to provide new opportunities to the artist world, especially the future generation, according to the challenges of the day.

As part of its main tasks, the Company manages 6 artist resorts and 2 art colonies throughout Hungary (Szentendre, Szigliget, Zsennye, Kecskemét, Galyatető, Hódmezővásárhely and Mártély); it organises as many as 100 exhibitions and other cultural events, it also handles several art scholarships, providing support for young creative artists in the framework of an art tender system.

Short description	One strategic element of this diverse portfolio is the support system established to give incentives and popularise pop-music, in order to facilitate the popularisation of high standard productions at home and abroad, as well as support of pop-music concert venues and international trips and promotions.

Our organisation participated in international art projects several times, thus, for example this year the world-renowned Finnish graphic designer had an exhibition and workshop with us; also in 2018 in Brussels the contemporary artistic aspirations of the V4 countries were showcased as part of Hungary's V4 presidency. For several years we have been exhibiting the important works of the Hungarian painting tradition in Sepsiszentgyörgy (Sfântu Gheorghe, Romania), while in Cracow (Poland) some significant fine art works evolved on cross-border traditions of over hundred years by the artists of Szentendre Old Artist Colony were showcased.
