

Partner search

Culture sub-Program

Strand/category	European Cooperation Projects
Deadline	TBD

Cultural operator(s)

Name	Somacult, Formas Culturais
Short description	Somacult is focusing on arts programming and community based initiatives, developing projects that approach the artistic community both from a professional and an emotional point of view. Special notice for projects that aim for non-mainstream approaches and have a documental baseline.
Contact details	Bruno Castro – bruno.castro@somacult.pt

Project

Field(s)	Creative expressions (visual arts, performance, sound, photography, literature, cinema, urban art, graphic design, other)
Description	Creative Shores aims to promote crossborder creative projects by creators based in European ultra-peripheral regions (Azores and Madeira [PT], Canarias [ES], Reunion/Guadaloupe [FR], Iceland, Finland, Norway). The project will also build a international platform to promote all the community of creative agents between themselves and to make them visible to other cultural/artistic stakeholders (curators, event directors, promoters, other).

Partners searched

Countries	Spain, France, Iceland, Norway, Finland
Profile	Cultural centers, museums, Art galleries, Non-Profit associations or other cultural hubs that work on an international non-mainstream scope and promote independent local based artists.

Other

...

--

