Project

Field(s)	Music therapy/Parent's empowerment and Transdisciplinary work Education
Description	We support Early Childhood Development of young children from all over the country, including economic and social vulnerable families, disabled children. Besides our social and medical support, we wish to address Early Childhood Development from artistically point of view, for example using music therapy and instruments in development of children and support for parents/sibling. Also we wish to attract and involve professional dancers in working with children and parents. Using Art in development and stress relief is a very creative and has immediate positive effect. We also wish to empower and educate parents, sibling and society at large through this project.
