4. Frequently Asked Questions

1. Does the host international partner receive funding too or just the traveling artist?
 - The Call for Individual Mobility offers funding for the travelling artist.
 - More info on the Residency Action will be available early 2023
2. What's the mechanism to find and contact the international partner?
 - Applicants are free to choose their international partner.
 - Some recommendations: TransArtist websites.
3. Can I have more than one international partner?
 - No, you choose one country and one international partner that fits the objective of your project.
4. I work in the digital/audiovisual sector, but my project is about preservation of the heritage, is this eligible?
 - As long as you can justify the project as cultural heritage, and not mainly an audiovisual production, it can be considered eligible

elle

4. Frequently Asked Questions

5. Will traveling by plane influence or sway the evaluation of my project?

→ No, it won't influence to your evaluation score if you have to travel by plane. However, if you travel green above 600 km, you will receive a green top-up.

elle

6. If my project is accepted do I have to realize my mobility right away?

→ You don't have to travel right away. However, the mobility must take place within 1 year from the signature of the grant agreement. The possibility to change is limited to only force majeure situations.

7. How far in advance should I apply if I want to travel soon?

→ We would suggest to apply 3 months in advance. This is due to the evaluation calendar and monthly cut-off dates. Remember, this whole process takes a bit of time.
